

said she must write to you, and she asked me your address.

Mamma said for you to be a good girl & she sends her love to you, she is going to bring us all a present from the city.
I hope Mrs. M. is better.
With love to all.

Your Loving Sister
I suppose you will come soon.
Mamma Schaubach
I expect a letter from you on my birthday.

Watsonville
Mar. 6, 1893.

Dear Sister Tina,

I received your welcome letter and was sorry to hear that Mrs.
Martin could not go to San Rafael, but hope she will go soon, so you can come a few days and spend my birthday with me when I am eighteen years old.
We are all well as usual. How are you, all.

Yamma and Charlie left this morning on the early train, and are in the city to night.

He want her to stay a month, if she does, do not know, but hope she does.

We have 66 little chickens and a little calf born to-day from the little heifer.

Our garden is fine, but only shaded on one side, for it has always rained and we did not get to it.

Mr. Skinner is here in bed, and almost died to day. Mrs. Skinner has

2 tumors, she will have them taken from her, I'd. but one out of 100 lives in this case, but everybody thinks that she won't live. The family is all here, so one can see her to-day. The family is in a terrible fix.

I suppose you know that Mrs. Carver married and she is going to move to Santa Cruz with Mr.
Martin her husband.

Mr. Regan went off on a visit, and so many has been sleeping over here for 3 nights, and she