October is their golden month

Ted and Irma Reeves.

Ted and Irma Reeves celebrated their golden anniversary on Oct. 25 with a buffet dinner and open house at the home of their son, Ron Reeves of Smith Road.

Assisting his brother as host for the afternoon celebration was Bob Aldridge of Santa Clara.

The former Irma Oksen, who was born and raised in Watsonville, became Mrs. Ted Reeves on Oct. 25, 1930 in Carson City, Nev. Both retired, she worked as a nurse at Watsonville Hospital, and her husband was employed by the former E.A. Hall and Sons Real Estate Company, which is now Kane, Hall and Palmtag. They have lived in Watsonville their 50 years of marriage.

The Reeves have 12 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Dearest Mimi and Pappy,

Love is patient and Kind;
it is not jealous or Conceited or Proud;

Love is not ill-mannered or Selfish or irritable; Love does not Keep a record of wrongs;

Love is not happy with evil, but is happy with Truth.

Love never gives up; and its Faith, hope, and patience never fail.

Love is eternal.
(1 Cor. 13: 4-8)

Happy 50th Anniversary.
Love,

CRES, Vicki, Tammi and Tina A.

Cres and I looked through the bible to find the verse we put in your card. It's something that people should learn to live by, we think; maybe if they did, the world would be a happier place to live.
Anyway, we do wish you both our warmest Congratulations for your 50 years spent together.

Today as you're remembering the fifty years you've spent And all the cherished moments that led up to this event, Others share your happiness and warmly want to say Sincere congratulations on this most important day.

Best Wishes Always

Dear Mimi + Pappy,

I'm a little (!) late this time around. I was on my way to getting a Thanksgiving card and I stopped short ~~at~~ the Anniversary cards. I got an invitation to the celebration and Dad sent me some napkins from it but time just kept on flying by. I've been carrying this little card for you for almost a year now. I figure this is as good as time as ever to give it to you.

Well - Happy Anniversary, Happy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas and

You've seen the realization Of so many things you've planned Walking through these golden years Together, hand in hand, So may this grand occasion
Be a happy one for you,
And may the golden days ahead Be just as happy, too! (and even more)

Happy New Year. That ought to get me caught up for a while.
Any way, let it be known I never forget to think about you.
Love always Kathy.

Love "u" always Love,
nancy

Love you both Diane

Have a happy

With love - Best wishes in future years.
Janet

Roses "r" red, Violets "r" blue... (?)

This ann-i-ver-sar-y Is jus' for you ...
... two.

Fifty years to cel-le-brate (how the time flew), with lots of friends,
And goodies too!

We lov "u" true !!!

Love is an attitude ... in constant motion as the sea

The magnitude love achieves is measured by its strength of giving, perception of understanding, faith of purpose through the passage of time.

Fruits and vegetables on the artist canvas are nurtured by the hand which sowed them.

Like the mountains of ages, your love is fast Fifty years is here at last.

Dreaming dreams, following rainbows
The gold is finally found but there is no leprechaun Love goes on.

Good food from greenhouse to kitchen,
Boy it sure is bitchen.

Boxes of dust,
Boxes of rust,
Aged jars, Pickles a must,
Applesauce, I trust,

A tinker's shop,
A pantry cache, Bolstered by caring, strengthened by giving,
Matured in sharing,
But the water seeps in anyway.

Good years, joyous months, happy days,
miserable moments who could ask for more.

...
The farmer plows up dust,
The woman makes a fuss.

Footprints of love on a freshly mopped floor.

Love,

Mary

To Mimi and Pappy,

"The Priceless Golden Years"

Fifty precious golden years-- the greatest years in life, Years of trust and patience as a loving husband and wife, Planning things together and watching dreams come true, Sharing little secrets meant especially for two, Remembering moments filled with both the sad and happy tears-- No wonder that they're known as the priceless golden years!

M. D. HUGHES

and cherishing in thought the countless, golden moments that your married life has brought, Here's hoping that this happy day will live throughout the years as a rich and golden memory among your souvenirs.*

Congratulations And Best Wishes

Love, John

Hi you lucky couple Erma & Ted

It's time to recall the years you've shared—the "sweetheart" years, when love was strange and new... the family years, when love spread out and togetherness took on a greater meaning... the recent years, when love mellowed and the simpler joys of companionship revealed themselves to the fullest.

May all your dearest memories make this one of your happiest days ever... and may your future bring many more occasions as nice as the one you share today!

Love
Kathryn

Congratulations to you both -- How happy you must be To see this dearly cherished dream Become reality,
And may you find that future days Add in a special way
To all the joy that must be yours
This Golden Wedding Day.

When two hearts meet, the stars above Seem brighter in the glow of love And every soft and gentle breeze Sings romantic melodies...

When two hearts meet, the sky of blue Takes on a deeper, richer hue
And there's no one who can explain Why sunshine sparkles through the rain...

When two hearts meet, there is no need For any special word or deed For there is nothing two can't say With true love there to show the way!

May the love that you share stay as bright as a star And may happiness always be right where you are!
